To the tune of "You're So Vain"

You walked out of Ursula's
Like you were walking onto a yacht
Your hat strategically dipped over a high-pigment shadowed eye
Your lipstick it was oil-infused apricot
You had one eye in the mirror
As you admired your triple-milled powder
And all the girls dreamed that they'd wear Urs makeup,
They'd wear Urs makeup

You're so vain, you probably think Urs is about you
You're so vain, we bet you think Urs is about you
Don't you? Don't you?

Ursula had us several years ago
When we needed a beauty guru to trust
Well now she says she makes natural cosmetics
With vitamins A, C, and E
There's antioxidant-rich ingredients in each drop
She gives one-on-one teaching at her shop
You had some dreams, she'll bring more colors this spring,
She'll bring more colors this spring

You're so vain, you probably think Urs is about you
You're so vain, we bet you think Urs is about you
Don't you? Don't you?
